In reply to your D.O. of the 20th Instant, I wish to state that there is one ward upstairs with accommodation for five caste women patients which still remains without being named. I would suggest that it would be very fitting indeed if this ward is proposed to be named after you as it was here that you were recently laid up with pneumonia which you as the then Medical Officer of this Institution contracted during your unceasing efforts to cambat against the havocs which that scourge was playing upon the lives of so many of the Hospital patients then.

With kind regards,
